

Star Arbitrator Award Vis East Moot 13 (2015 -2016)

Gordon Tregaskis

Gordon is a Chartered Arbitrator, CEDR Solve Mediator and Adjudicator (CIPAA) with over 35 years' experience of international business. He has spent the past 20 years in legal and commercial roles resolving issues on major construction and concession projects in South East Asia, Europe, the Middle East and the Americas.

Gordon began his career as a barrister in England in 1980 and later moved into the shipping and marine insurance sector where he conducted and managed high value shipping and commodity arbitrations. A number of roles as a public company secretary and general counsel in aviation and industrial sectors followed, before becoming Commercial Director and subsequently CEO of several international companies managing major capital projects in Australia, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Malaysia and Thailand. Between 2007 and 2013 Gordon worked in Dubai initially for the Government and subsequently consulted on major engineering and construction contract disputes for Hill International.

In 2013 Gordon became a full time Neutral. He is a panel member of several well known arbitration institutions and believes in making clear decisions in accordance with contract provisions based on the facts established by evidence. He also is a passionate believer in mediation as a tool for promoting successful commercial settlements and outcomes in appropriate cases. Gordon is solutions oriented and brings a unique understanding of cross-cultural issues to disputes or differences affecting international business. He is a member of faculty for the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors and lectures at the LLM program at the BUiD. Gordon divides his time between Asia and MENA regions where his services, experience and ADR skills are in demand
